EXPLANATORY NOTES

Shareholder Questions to Directors

Shareholders are invited to submit written questions to individual Directors. These must be clearly handwritten or (preferably) typed, signed and with the writer's name, address and shareholder number printed on it. Letters can be posted to: Question for Director (name of Director), C/O Managing Director, Geneva Finance Limited, Private Bag 14923, Panmure, Auckland, 1741, New Zealand. All questions must be received before 4 August 2017. The Directors will answer these questions at the conclusion of Ordinary Business.

Additional Information for Shareholders

This explanatory material has been prepared for the information of shareholders of Geneva in relation to the business to be conducted at the Meeting. The purpose of this explanatory material is to provide Shareholders with information that is reasonably required by shareholders to decide how to vote upon the resolutions. The Board recommends that shareholders read this material before determining whether or not to support the resolutions.

Appointment of Directors

The Company currently has four Directors. In accordance with the Company's constitution the Director who has been longest in office since being elected or re-elected, being Robin King, is required to retire from office at the Annual Meeting. However, Robin King is eligible for re-election and is therefore offering himself for re-election at the Annual Meeting.

Auditors

Propose to re-appoint Staples Rodway as auditors of the company for the next financial year and to authorise the Directors to fix the remuneration of the Auditors.

Majority required

The resolutions required for agenda items 1 to 3 are ordinary resolutions. Ordinary resolutions will be passed if greater than 50% of the votes that are cast by shareholders entitled to vote on the resolution and voting, vote in favour of the resolution.

Quorum

The shareholder's meeting will proceed if at least 5 shareholders having the right to vote at the meeting are present in person or by proxy.

Exercise of votes

On a show of hands, each shareholder has one vote. On a poll, each shareholder has one vote for each share held.

Voting of jointly held shares

If your shares are jointly held, only the vote of the shareholder whose name appears first in the register of shareholders will be counted to the exclusion of the other joint holder.

Voting by corporations

In order to vote at the meeting (other than by proxy), a corporation that is a holder of shares must appoint a person to act as its representative.

Motions from floor

Motions from the floor during the meeting will not be permitted.

Amendments to Resolutions

Proxies will not be permitted to vote on any amendments to the resolutions set out in this notice of meeting.

Proxies and Representatives

You may exercise your right to vote at the meeting either by being present in person or by appointing a proxy to attend and vote in your place. A proxy need not be a shareholder of Geneva. You may appoint the Chairperson of the Meeting to be your proxy. If you do not indicate how the Chairperson will vote, the Chairperson will vote in favour of the resolutions. A body corporate shareholder may appoint a representative to attend the meeting on its behalf.

A proxy form is enclosed with this Notice of Meeting. If you wish to vote by proxy you must complete the form and return it to Link Market Services Limited, so as to ensure that it is received by 5.00pm, on 4 August 2017. You can also appoint your proxy and vote on the resolutions online by going to <https://investorcentre.linkmarketservices.co.nz/voting/GFL>. Details of where to return the completed proxy form are set out on the Proxy Form.
